

Through Tribulation

D A7 D A7
Though it is dark in this world of sin
D G D A7 D
Though evil prospers it shall not win
D A7 D A7
First tribulation, then with a shout
 D G D A7 D
We'll be caught away 'fore his wrath's poured out

Chorus:

D G D
The Lord will come with ten thousands of saints
D G D A7 D
He'll judge the earth for his righteous name's sake
D A7 D A7
Through tribulation, though we must come
D G D A7 D
There's naught can sep'rate us from his love

D A7 D A7
When sorrows increase, be not dismayed
 D G D A7 D
All must be fulfilled before that day
D A7 D A7
The man of sin we will surely see
 D G D A7 D
The sun and moon darkened then we shall be free

D A7 D A7
We must trust in him, though times seem dire
 D G D A7 D
These trials purify us with refining fire
D A7 D A7
When these come to pass, redemption is nigh
 D G D A7 D
He'll catch us away in the blink of an eye

*Through Tribulation is in the key of Eb but has been transposed to the key of D here so it can be played on a guitar. If you need to play it in Eb on the guitar, put a capo on the first fret and play the key of D chords.
